• Keep BUY and THB85 TP (DCF), 33% upside, c.2% yield. We are still positive on CP All's 4Q24 and FY25 earnings prospects, based on its strong SSSG during 4Q's high season, improving tourism, better product mix, business expansions, and its subsidiary CP Axtra's (CPAXT TB, NR) potential cost savings. Valuation is undemanding (-1.5SD) and more attractive than CPAXT. 3Q24 results recap. CPALL reported THB6.19bn core profit in 3Q24 (+45% YoY, +1% QoQ). The solid YoY growth was driven by positive SSSG and higher GPM from its convenience stores (CVS) and CPAXT's business units. The limited QoQ growth was due to seasonality. Including one-time FX losses and amalgamation expenses from CPAXT, net profit for the quarter totalled Vatcharut Vacharawongsith +66 2088 9736

vatcharut.va@rhbgroup.com

- THB5.61bn (+27% YoY, -10% QoQ). 9M24 core profit grew 44% YoY. • Higher traffic at tourism areas. CPALL's CVS in tourism destinations and at petrol stations have seen rising sales performance. We expect these stores to benefit from further changes in consumer behaviour (moving towards ready-to-eat products), which has led to higher traffic. The momentum
- should continue in 4Q24. CPALL opened 508 CVS in 9M24 (3Q24: 199), and should be able to achieve this year's target of 700 new outlets. • A better product mix. Moving forward, CPALL's improving sales for high-
- margin ready-to-eat foods (c.30% of CVS sales), personal care, and healthcare merchandise, along with smaller tobacco sales, is expected to continue. Meanwhile, CPAXT is focusing on improving product assortments such as for fresh food (42% of Makro's sales, 28% of Lotus's' sales) and private label products. We expect these factors to keep its GPM on an uptrend in 4Q24-FY25. CPAXT's THB5bn targeted synergistic cost-savings from the business amalgamation in 4Q24-FY27 may also help boost profit margins.
- Robust 4Q24 outlook. We maintain our view that the high season for retailers and some benefits from the Thai Government's stimulus measures should help CPALL's 4Q24 earnings expand YoY and QoQ. 4Q24 QTD SSSGs are healthy, with positive low-to-mid single digit for CVS, and positive lowsingle digit for Makro and Lotus's. We expect a mild 2-3% upside to our current 2024 core profit forecast of THB24.10bn (+31% YoY). For 2025, we expect core profit to expand by 11%, supported by an increase in the number of foreign tourists to Thailand and CPAXT's fresh food sales, as well as the opening of Makro's new composite distribution centre in 1Q25.
- Valuation. Our TP for the 12-month investment horizon includes an 8% ESG premium, and implies 29x FY25F P/E (-0.5SD to its 5-year historical mean). Current valuation is undemanding at 21x 2025F P/E (-1.5SD) and attractive compared to CPAXT, which is trading at its 5-year historical mean.

E: EXCELLENT

CPALL's CVS business is committed to supporting operations based on the 7 Go Green strategy that comprises four approaches: Green Stores, Green Logistics, Green Packaging, and Green Living. It has achieved targets under this strategy, such as the One Less Bag a Day project to reduce plastic bag usage. It has also improved the efficiency of electrical appliances at its CVS to reduce greenhouse gas emissions. It is steadfast in promoting plastic waste recycling in product manufacturing.

S: EXCELLENT

CPALL has implemented projects to improve the local economy and prosperity of Thai society in the long run, with a key focus on education, skills development, food safety and access, and innovation management. As Thailand's largest retail employer, it also hires staff from the vulnerable and disabled communities. This fully integrated foundation may differentiate CPALL from other grocery retailers and support its business expansion further.

G: EXCELLENT

CPALL has revised corporate standards and regulations to address climate change more. The company manages the business for sustainable growth, reducing risks, and enhancing transparency. It also treats shareholders equally and protects their interests by conducting regular activities.
