LPN Development (LPN TB)

Sell (Maintained)

Another Quarter Of Disappointment; Stay SELL

Target Price (Return): THB2.80 (-29.6%)
 Price (Market Cap): THB3.98 (USD160m)
 ESG score: 2.4 (out of 4)
 Avg Daily Turnover (THB/USD) 2.77m/0.08m

- Stay SELL and THB2.80 TP, 30% downside and >5% dividend yield. After disappointing 3Q23 bottomline results, LPN Development's performance prospects remain under pressure on the slow take-up rates for its condominium and low-rise projects. Hence, its underperformance still persists with no strong near-term recovery signs in sight.
- 3Q23 net profit was disappointing again. LPN posted a 3Q23 net profit of THB104m (-56% YoY, +19% QoQ), which was 17% lower than our estimate. Inevitably, quarterly bottomline declined a significant 56% from 3Q22's high base, as there was a sales transaction involving an entire office building that led to extra gains of THB155m in 3Q22. Although core revenue of THB1.99bn (-53% YoY, +15% QoQ) was in line with our estimate, the newly completed Lumpini Condotown Ekachai 48 condominium project has started its unit transfers during this quarter. A lower-than-estimated 3Q23 GPM of 22% was pressured by slim GPMs stemming from Maison 168 Muangthong, which posted less-than-average GPMs of 12-13%. Note: Average GPMs for condominium and low-rise projects stand at 23.8% and 18%. Although the firm launched five new projects – one EARN by LPN condominium in Chonburi and four Haus 24 low-rise projects – it still maintained quite stringent SG&A expenses.
- Unlikely to achieve all business targets. Based on LPN's 9M23 performance, we do not expect the company to achieve all aspects of its FY23 targets. This is especially so for presales and transfer revenues – 9M23 numbers were only 61% and 53% of its full-year goals. Even for new project launches, LPN may miss its full-year target of THB14bn, as it is planning to launch only two projects within 4Q23: i) A small condominium project (the THB860m Place 168 Wutthakat) and one townhouse development (the THB1.15bn Venue 24 Pracha Uthit). All-in-all, the company can achieve merely 90% of its full-year new launch targets, in our view. The postponement of LPN's new project launches may imply the weak demand situation in low- to mid-end income markets.
- Based on LPN's low-rise housing market study, the average 9M23 take-up rate of such projects overall are not so attractive at 8-9%. Existing supply of townhouse and semi-detached homes are concentrated in the <THB3m and THB3-10m/unit brackets while single-detached house projects (with ASPs of >THB20/unit) have been the key focus for most developers. Interestingly, there were stronger take-up rates for high-priced products in each segment. Therefore, as LPN focuses on the low-end market, it has postponed new launches amidst the current market trends.
- Maintain TP. As our ESG score for LPN remains at 2.4, which is eight notches below the country median of 3.2, our TP remains at THB2.80. This has an ESG discount of 16% imputed in, as per our in-house proprietary methodology, and is based on 8.1x FY23F P/E.
