- Keep BUY and THB34 TP, 39% upside and c.3% yield. Charoen Pokphand Foods is in a solid position to gain advantage from the post-pandemic consumption recovery, as 3Q22 results showed an attractive bottomline. 4Q is also a period that usually sees strong consumer spending. Management is increasing operating efficiencies too, which should lead to better cost controls in our view. We also believe CPF will benefit from the high swine and broiler prices in Thailand, China, and Vietnam.

- 3Q22 strong as expected. CPF reported a 3Q22 net profit of THB5.1bn vs a 3Q21 loss of THB5.37bn – the 21% QoQ increase was near to what was expected. After excluding extra items: i) FX gain of THB394m, ii) a biological loss of THB837m, and iii) gains from stock trading in an associated company of THB22m, normal profit stood at THB5.53m vs a YoY loss of THB4.9bn in 3Q21 – there was also a 50% QoQ increase. This was mainly from strong meat prices and better performances from the swine business in China. Gross margin was high at 15% vs 8.8% in 3Q21 and 14.5% in 2Q22. SG&A/sales reduced to 9% from 10.4% in 3Q21, as management was able to efficiently manage CPF's operating costs.

- Strong meat prices in many operating countries. Swine prices in Thailand rose 48% YoY to THB108/kg. Vietnam's swine price are hovering at VND64,000/kg (+23% YoY, +16% QoQ) from 2Q22's VND55,000/kg. Vietnam's economy is undergoing a recovery – there has been an increase in meat demand as post-pandemic consumption rises. Chicken broilers are also seeing strong prices (THB48/kg; +9%QoQ). Chia Tai Investment, which operates the swine business in China, has returned to profit. Most Chinese swine producers, which are small local players, have exited the market while demand is improving. Prices are hovering at c.CNY22/kg (+67% QoQ), which is higher than most production costs, ie CNY16-17/kg.

- 4Q22 expected to see high consumption. The higher raw material prices may rise further, leading to be some concerns. However, Thai swine prices are expected to be strong throughout the year because it takes a long time to raise such livestock. Hence, there is still likely to be some shortages ahead. The Vietnamese economy is also undergoing a recovery, and there has been an increase in meat demand as post-pandemic consumption rises. This means there will be strong demand in 4Q, in our view. Strong consumption is expected to continue into 2023, given the upcoming Lunar New Year and Tet Nguyen Dan festivities in early next year.

- We derive an ESG score of 3.6 for CPF, given its success in applying ESG principles towards developing sustainable operations. Accordingly, we apply a 6% premium to our intrinsic value to arrive at our THB34 TP. CPF is expected to see a 3% yield this year. Maintain BUY.
