- Keep BUY and THB10.77 TP (SOP), 33% upside and c.2% yield. While Bangkok Expressway and Metro's overall performance has been driven by the growth of its major businesses, management is also highly confident over the company's growth from the possible extension of expressway concession terms and Orange Line Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) concession.
- Orange Line MRT concession to be awarded soon. Despite market concerns, management is confident the Orange Line MRT concession will be awarded to BEM. It further guided that this new MRT line should take at least five years to capture the Blue Line MRT's current ridership and represent c.70% of the latter's contributions.
- Double-deck section to provide an upside of expressway concession terms. According to management, this long-delayed project construction worth c.>THB35bn will potentially allow it to negotiate a concession extension for up to 20 years. We believe this will provide an upside for BEM's earnings visibility. Note: Revenue from the expressway business currently accounts for the highest proportion of group revenue, at >53%, while GPM from this business is also high at 67%.
- Low concerns over capital increase. Based on the possible projects pipeline for BEM going forward, management is highly confident that it will be unnecessary for the company to call for a capital increase, especially in the event the Orange Line MRT concession and expressway's double-deck section are simultaneously awarded to BEM. As of 1Q24, net D/E stayed at 1.6x – still below the debt covenant of 2.5x.
- Earnings momentum intact. Historically, the company's earnings in the past quarters have been in line with our estimates, mainly driven by the organic growth of its core businesses. In 1Q24, net profit was 4% higher than our estimate while core revenue growth of +4% YoY was mainly contributed by an 8% YoY growth from the MRT business – in line with the 13% YoY increase in Blue Line MRT ridership during this quarter. Note: Expressway revenue only grew 1% YoY as average expressway traffic during the quarter saw a slight 0.4% YoY decline. 1Q24 GPM rose YoY to 44.5% due to the lower cost of electricity while SG&A expense fell 3% YoY. For the remaining quarters in FY24, earnings should still remain intact, as dividend income stream will support BEM's earnings in 2Q24 and 3Q24 as well as organic growth from the Blue Line MRT. We maintain our FY24F net profit of THB4.2bn, representing a 21% YoY growth.
- Based on the solid organic growth of BEM's core businesses, we maintain our TP, which includes a 2% ESG premium based on the company's ESG score of 3.3 (above the 3.2 country median).

Overall ESG Score: 3.3 (out of 4)

E: GOOD

BEM has assured that the expressway users are provided with convenient, fast, safe services, by which the economic losses caused by fuel burning in the course of traffic congestion can be minimised. As for the metro system, in addition to safe, convenient, fast services provided to users, it is also an eco-friendly public transport system that consumes clean energy, helps minimise air pollution, and reduces greenhouse gas and carbon dioxide emissions.

S: EXCELLENT

BEM has carried out activities based on responsibility for impact its business has had on communities and the society. It also participates in helping to develop and maintain the well-being of communities. Its guidelines for operations on care for and collaborations in community development are divided into three target groups: i) Origin (communities surrounding the workplaces), ii) middle-way (communities along the service routes), and iii) destination (society as a whole).

G: EXCELLENT

The structure and agility of BEM's governance is essential to ensure consistency in: i) Strategic risk management; and ii) giving critical, accurate and timely information throughout the entire IT governance system. This is so that BEM can maximise efficiency in managing resources, in response to the ever-changing business environment.
