- Maintain BUY, unchanged TP of THB7.60, 27% upside with c.7% FY20F yield. AP (Thailand) remains our top sector pick, as its rock-solid presales should lead to medium-term earnings growth prospects being stronger than that of its peers.
- No disappointment in boosting low-rise project presales. After AP hit a new low-rise project presales record of THB7.7bn (>50% growth YoY and QoQ) in 2Q20, it should be able to maintain superb low-rise project presales in July and August, at THB3.1bn and THB3.2bn. The sturdy presales momentum is expected to continue this month. The developer's presales have been well-supported by its aggressive launches of new townhouse and single-detached home projects, as planned since early 2020. Although it will not launch any new condominium projects in 2020, AP launched seven low-rise residential projects worth THB7.1bn in August. It is anticipated to launch eight more low-rise projects worth THB9.1bn this month. This aggressive move is geared towards fulfilling the demand for residential real estate in a prolonged COVID-19 pandemic.
- New chess game on the board. AP's new project highlight in 3Q20 should be its first low-rise project under a new brand, Apitown. This brand is geared specifically towards tapping the demand in major provincial areas. Note that AP is planning to launch four new Apitown projects in 4Q20. We regard this as the company's attempt to extend its presales momentum, by leveraging on its reputation as a developer of low-rise projects in new provincial markets. Although presales in provincial areas should not be as fast as they are in Bangkok and the vicinity, AP is on a path to diversify its business risk against focusing only on Bangkok. As such, Apitown can be a major revenue driver from FY21 onwards.
- Fair earnings in 3Q20F. For 3Q20, while AP may not chart the stellar earnings growth seen in previous quarters (2Q20: THB1.2bn), we believe net profit should be well-supported by: the transfer of townhouses and single-detached home units, based on solid presales in 2Q20 and 3Q20; its bestselling condominium project, Life Ladphrao, continuing to be transferred in 3Q20; and newly-completed projects (Life Asoke-Rama IX and Aspire Asoke-Ratchada) with presales above 90% of overall projects starting to be transferred. 3Q20 earnings prospects are fair, which should help solidify FY20 earnings and enable AP to chart mild growth – a rare feat for Thai developers this year – in FY20.
- Looking beyond FY20. Earnings prospects for FY21 and FY22 are underpinned by its abundant orderbook, which has condominium projects worth over THB10bn pa for the next two years. This provides a buffer against future downside risks, and assures this developer of consistent earnings growth ahead.
